As far as communication with you during our time out of school, I will keep assignment information on my teacher website (on the district website) as well as email you with updates or further information. I will be updating grades all week as I get through your quizzes and make-up or late work. If you have questions, email me as I will check email all the time, even in the evening.

Best wishes for a good digital experience in your learning and good health to you and your family.
